Meet Maggie Brown-Zetnor

The lady behind the scenes

Maggie Brown-Zetnor Has been a member of QMA since 1969. She started racing with her oldest son Bobby Breneman who raced from 1969 to 1976. Jane Ann Brown, her daughter raced from 1975 through 1986. Bucky Brown, Maggies' youngest son raced 1977 through 1988.

Maggie's home club is Terre Haute QMA where she has held several position: Secretary for 18 years, Board of Director 6 years, Novice director for 16 years which she is currently still doing. She probably is best known as the behind the scenes tower lady. She has worked the back tower for the past 16 years. This Grands will be Maggie's 44th grands, 36 of them being consecutive.

In 2003 QMA realized the contributions that Maggie had made to our organization and inducted her into the QMA Hall of Fame. There is no one more deserving for this honor.

Maggie has had two Grandchildren that have graduated quarter midgets: Josh Collins (15 local championships) and Kayla Collins (10 local championships). Currently she still has four grandchildren racing-Emily, Robert, Curtis, and Garrett Breneman. You can see Maggie working along with her husband Mike behind the scenes all week long. Don't be shy in saying hello and thanking her for all of her hard work and dedication.

Meet DJ Wykes And Dana Michalski

DJ Wykes is the QMA National flagger for all three Grand National events. DJ is a former quarter midget driver whose career began in 1995. DJ achieved 4 Grand National wins throughout his quarter midget career as well as numerous local and regional championships. DJ retired in 2005 and moved onto micro sprint racing. He has raced in the 270, 600, and 1000 series.

DJ just finished his freshman year at Drexel University in Pennsylvania where he is studying electrical engineering.

This is DJ's first full year as National Flagger. He also served as the National Flagger at the 2008 Dirt Grands and also helped out at the 2008 Eastern Grands.

The National Board would like to thank DJ for all of his hard work, dedication, and desire to give back to the sport of quarter midget racing.

Dana Michalski is also a former quarter midget racer whose career spanned from 1999-2006. She learned good sportsmanship and intense competition; qualities that she can carry with her through out her life.

Dana is a recent high school graduate and is planning on studying pre-med at Temple University in Pennsylvania.

Dana, like DJ, truly enjoys giving back to the sport that has given so much to them.
