All members in good standing shall have the right to vote, as set forth in these bylaws, on the election of directors, the disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation, any merger and its principal terms and any amendment of those terms, and any election to dissolve the Corporation. A member may resign from membership at any time; provided, however, that resignation from membership shall not relieve the resigning member from any obligation for dues, assessments, fees, charges incurred, and services or benefits actually rendered or assessed prior to the date of resignation and shall not entitle the resigning member to any refund of dues, assessments, fees or charges previously paid.

3.6.2. A membership issued for a period of time shall expire when such period of time has elapsed unless the membership is renewed.

3.7. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

A membership shall terminate on occurrence of any of the following events:

3.8. PROCEDURES FOR TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Notice shall be given by any method reasonably calculated to provide actual notice. Notice given by mail shall be sent by first-class or registered mail to the member’s last address as shown on the Corporation’s records.

3.8.2.2. The Board, committee or person shall decide whether the member should be terminated, expelled or sanctioned in any way. The decision of the Board, committee or person shall be final.

3.8.2.3. Any action challenging a termination or expulsion of membership, or a sanction, including a claim alleging defective notice, must be commenced within one year after the date of the termination, expulsion or sanction.

3.9. TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP

No membership or right arising from membership shall be transferred.

3.10. MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

An annual members’ meeting shall be held in the second week of the month of November of each year at a date, time and place to be determined by the Board. At the annual meeting, any proper business may be transacted, subject to Section 3.12 of this Article.

3.11. SPECIAL MEETINGS

The officer receiving the request shall cause notice to be given promptly to the members entitled to vote, stating that a meeting will be held at a specified time and date fixed by the Board; provided, however, that the meeting date shall be at least 35 days but no more than 90 days after receipt of the request. If the notice is not given within 20 days after the request is received, the person or persons requesting the meeting may give the notice. Nothing in this Section shall be construed as limiting, fixing or affecting the time at which a members’ meeting may be held when the meeting is called by the Board.

3.11.3. No business other than the business that was set forth in the notice of the meeting may be transacted at a special meeting.

3.12. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

3.12.1. Whenever members are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, a written notice of the meeting shall be given to each member entitled to vote at that meeting. The notice shall specify the place, date and time of the meeting. For the annual meeting, the notice shall state the matters that the Board, at the time notice is given, intends to present for action by the members. For a special meeting, the notice shall state the general nature of the business to be transacted and shall state that no other business may be transacted. The notice of any meeting at which directors are to be elected shall include the names of all persons who are nominees when notice is given.

3.12.2. Approval by the members of any of the following proposals, other than by unanimous approval of those entitled to vote, is valid only if the notice or written waiver of notice states the general nature of the proposal or proposals:

3.12.2.1. Removing a director without cause;
3.12.2.2. Filling vacancies on the Board;
3.12.2.3. Amending the Articles of Incorporation;

The notice shall be given either personally, or by first-class, registered, or certified mail, electronic transmission (pursuant to Section 3.12.4, below), or by other means of written communication, charges prepaid, and shall be addressed to each member entitled to vote, at the address of that member as it appears on the books of the Corporation or at the address given by the member to the Corporation for purposes of notice. If no address appears on the Corporation’s books and no address has been so given, notice shall be deemed to have been given if either:

3.12.3.1. Notice is sent to that member by first-class mail or telegraphic or other written communication to the Corporation’s principal office; or 3.12.3.2. Notice is published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal office is located.
3.12.4. Notice may be given by electronic transmission (including, without limitation, by electronic mail (e-mail) only if the:

3.12.4.1. Recipient has provided an unrevoked consent to the use of those means of transmission for communications from the Corporation;
3.12.4.2. Posting or delivery of the electronic transmission is made in such a way that it creates a record that is capable of retention, retrieval, and review, and that may thereafter be rendered into a clearly legible tangible form; and
3.12.4.3. Electronic transmission is preceded by or includes a clear written statement to the recipient as to:

3.12.4.3.1. Any right of the recipient to have the record provided or made available on paper or in nonelectronic form;
3.12.4.3.2. Whether the consent applies only to that transmission, to specified categories of communications, or to all communications from the Corporation; and 3.12.4.3.3. The procedures the recipient must use to withdraw the consent.

3.12.5. An affidavit of mailing of any notice of any members’ meeting, or of the giving of such notice by other means, may be executed by the Secretary, Assistant Secretary, or any transfer agent of the Corporation, and if so executed, shall be filed and maintained in the Corporation’s minute book.

3.12.6. Notice may not be given to a member by electronic transmission if either:

3.12.6.1. The Corporation is unable to deliver two consecutive notices to the member by that means; or

3.13. QUORUM

The members present at a duly held meeting of members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

3.14. VOTING

3.14.1. Subject to the Nonprofit Law, all members in good standing on the record date as determined under Section 3.5 of this Article shall be entitled to vote at any members’ meeting.
3.14.2. Each member entitled to vote may cast one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of members.
3.14.3. Voting may be by voice or by ballot, except that any election of directors must be by ballot if demanded before the voting begins by any member eligible to vote at the meeting. The Board may provide for members to vote by ballot via e-mail or electronic message board or network, but only as follows:

3.14.3.1. Members may vote via e-mail when their e-mail is directed to the e-mail address that the Corporation has provided from time to time to members for sending such communications to the Corporation.
3.14.3.2. Members may vote via electronic message board or network that the Corporation has designated for those communications, and which transmission shall be validly delivered upon the posting.

3.14.3.3. Voting via e-mail, electronic message board and network shall only be permitted and valid if the Corporation has placed in effect reasonable measures to verify that the sender is the member purporting to send the transmission and that creates a record that is capable of retention, retrieval, and review, and that may thereafter be rendered into clearly legible tangible form.

3.14.4. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power represented at the meeting, entitled to vote, and voting on the matter, shall be deemed the act of the members unless the vote of a greater number is required by the Nonprofit Law, these bylaws, or the Articles of Incorporation.

3.15. WAIVER OF NOTICE

3.15.1.2. either before or after the meeting, each member entitled to vote, not present in person, signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to the holding of the meeting, or an approval of the minutes of the meeting. The waiver of notice, consent or approval need not specify either the business to be transacted or the purpose of the meeting except that, if action is taken or proposed to be taken for approval of any matter specified in Section 3.12.2 of this Article, the waiver of notice, consent or approval shall state the general nature of the proposal. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

3.15.2. A member’s attendance at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of that meeting unless the member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required to be included in the notice of the meeting but not so included, if the objection is expressly made at the meeting.

3.16. ACTIONS BY UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the members may be taken without a meeting if all members consent in writing to the action. The written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting. The action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the members.

3.17. ACTION BY WRITTEN BALLOT

3.17.1. This Corporation shall distribute one written ballot to each member entitled to vote on the matter. The ballots shall be mailed or delivered in the manner required by Section 3.12.3 of this Article. All solicitations of votes by written ballot shall:

3.17.1.1. State the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement;
3.17.1.2. State, with respect to ballots other than for election of directors, the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure or measures; and

3.17.2. Each ballot so distributed shall:

3.17.2.1. Set forth the proposed action;

3.17.2.3. Provide a reasonable time in which to return the ballot to the Corporation.

3.17.3. If approved by the Board, any ballot that is sent by electronic transmission may be returned to the Corporation by the same means.

3.17.4. If the Corporation has 100 or more members, any written ballot distributed to 10 or more members shall afford an opportunity on the written ballot form to specify a choice between approval and disapproval of each matter or group of related matters intended to be acted upon by such written ballot. In addition, it shall provide (subject to reasonable specified conditions) that where the person solicited specifies a choice with respect to any such matter the vote shall be cast in accordance therewith.

3.17.5. In any election of directors, a written ballot that a member marks “withhold” or otherwise marked in a manner indicating that authority to vote is withheld, shall not be voted either for or against the election of a director.

3.17.6. Approval by written ballot shall be valid only when:

3.17.6.1. The number of votes cast by ballot (including ballots that are marked “withhold” or otherwise indicate that authority to vote is withheld) within the time specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action; and
3.17.6.2. The number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required for approval at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by written ballot without a meeting.

3.17.7. A written ballot may not be revoked.

3.17.8. All written ballots shall be filed with the Secretary of the Corporation and maintained in the corporate records for at least four years.

The record date so fixed for:

3.18.1.2. Voting at a meeting shall be no more than 60 days before the date of the meeting;
3.18.1.3. Voting by written ballot shall be no more than 60 days before the day on which the first written ballot is mailed or solicited; and
3.18.1.4. Taking any other action shall be no more than 60 days before that action.

3.18.2. If not otherwise fixed by the Board, the record date for determining members entitled to receive notice of a members’ meeting shall be the next business day preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, the next business day preceding the day on which the meeting is held. If not otherwise fixed by the Board, the record date for determining members entitled to vote at the meeting shall be the day on which the meeting is held.

If not otherwise fixed by the Board, the record date for determining members entitled to vote by written ballot shall be the day on which the first written ballot is mailed or solicited.

If not otherwise fixed by the Board, the record date for determining members entitled to exercise any rights with respect to any other lawful action shall be the date on which the Board adopts the resolution relating to that action, or the 60th day before the date of that action, whichever is later.

For purposes of Section 3.18 of this Article, a person holding a membership at the close of business on the record date shall be a member of record.

3.19. ADJOURNMENT AND NOTICE OF ADJOURNED MEETINGS

Any members’ meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of the majority of the members represented at the meeting. No meeting may be adjourned for more than 45 days. When a members' meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which adjournment is taken. If after adjournment, a new record date is fixed for notice or voting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each member who, on the record date for notice of the meeting, is entitled to vote at the meeting. At the adjourned meeting the Corporation may transact any business that might have been transacted at the original meeting.

5.7. INDEMNIFICATION BY CORPORATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND OTHER AGENTS

5.7.1. For purposes of this Section, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed:

5.7.1.1. "Agent" means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or other agent of this Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of this Corporation as a director, office employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation that was a predecessor corporation of this Corporation or of another enterprise at the request of the predecessor corporation;

5.7.1.2. "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative; and

5.7.1.3. "Expenses" includes, without limitation, all attorney fees, costs, and any other expenses incurred in the defense of any claims or proceedings against an agent by reason of his position or relationship as agent and all attorneys’ fees, costs, and other expenses incurred in establishing a right to indemnification under this Article.

5.7.2. Subject to the required findings to be made pursuant to Subsection 5.7.6, this Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any proceeding for all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding, other than an action brought by, or on behalf of, this Corporation, or by an officer, director or person granted related status by the Attorney General, or by the Attorney General on the ground that the defendant director was or is engaging in self-dealing within the meaning of section 5233 of the Nonprofit Law or by the Attorney General or a person granted related status by the Attorney General for any breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust, by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of this Corporation.

5.7.3. This Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action brought by or on behalf of this Corporation by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of this Corporation, for all expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense of that action, provided that both of the following are met:
5.7.3.1. The determination of good faith conduct required by Subsection 5.7.6 must be made in the manner provided for in that Subsection; and

5.7.3.2. Upon application, the court in which the action was brought must determine that, in view of all of the circumstances of the case, the agent should be entitled to indemnity for the expenses incurred. If the agent is found to be so entitled, the court shall determine the appropriate amount of expenses to be reimbursed.

5.7.4. To the extent that an agent of this Corporation has been successful on the merits in the defense of any proceeding referred to in this Article, or in the defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection with the claim. If an agent either settles any such claim or sustains a judgment rendered against him, then the provisions of Subsections 5.7.3 and 5.7.6 shall determine whether the agent is entitled to indemnification.

5.7.5. If any agent settles or otherwise disposes of a threatened or pending action brought by or on behalf of this Corporation, with or without court approval, the agent shall receive no indemnification for either amounts paid pursuant to the terms of the settlement or other disposition or for any expenses incurred in defending against the proceeding.

5.7.6. The indemnification granted to an agent in Subsections 5.7.2 through 5.7.4 is conditioned on the following:

5.7.6.1. The agent seeking reimbursement must be found, in the manner provided below, to have acted in good faith, in a manner he believed to be in the best interest of this Corporation, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use in similar circumstances. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere, or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith or in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in the best interest of this Corporation or that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. In the case of a criminal proceeding, the person must have had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful; and

5.7.6.2. The determination that the agent did act in a manner complying with Subsection 5.7.6.1, above, shall be made by:

5.7.6.2.1. The Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to the proceeding; or 5.7.6.2.2. The court in which the proceeding is or was pending. Such determination may be made on application brought by this Corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering a defense to the agent, whether or not this Corporation opposes the application by the agent, attorney, or other person.

5.7.7. Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by this Corporation before the final disposition of the proceeding on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay the amount of the advance unless it is determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article. However, no indemnification or advance shall be made under this Section, in any circumstance when it appears:
5.7.7.1. That the indemnification or advance would be inconsistent with a provision of the Articles, a resolution of the members, or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or 5.7.7.2. That the indemnification would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

5.7.8. Nothing contained in this Section shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than directors and officers of this Corporation, or any subsidiary hereof, may be entitled by contract or otherwise. This Section does not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary of a pension, deferred compensation, savings, thrift, or other retirement, incentive, or benefit plan, trust, or provision for any or all of the Corporation's directors, officers, employees, and persons providing services to the Corporation or any of its subsidiary or related or affiliated corporations, in that person's capacity as such, even though that person may also be an agent of the Corporation as defined in bylaws. Nothing contained in this Section shall limit any right to indemnification to which such a trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary may be entitled by contract or otherwise, which shall be enforceable to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Notwithstanding the above, the Board shall vote or direct the President with respect to matters involving this Corporation’s membership in other nonprofit corporations.

ARTICLE 11

CORPORATE RECORDS, REPORTS AND SEAL

11.1. MAINTENANCE OF CORPORATE RECORDS

The Corporation shall keep at its principal office:

11.1.1. Minutes of all meetings of directors and committees of the Board, indicating the time and place of holding such meetings, whether regular or special, how called, the notice given, and the names of those present and the proceedings thereof;

11.1.2. Adequate and correct books and records of account, including accounts of its properties and business transactions and accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains and losses;

11.1.3. A copy of the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation and these bylaws as amended to date; and 11.1.4. Copies of all filings made to the Internal Revenue Service, the California Franchise Tax Board, California Secretary of State, and California Attorney General that the Corporation is required, by statute or regulation, to make generally available to the public.

11.2. CORPORATE SEAL

The Board may adopt, use, and at will alter, a corporate seal. Such seal shall be kept at the principal office of the Corporation. Failure to affix the seal to corporate instruments, however, shall not affect the validity of any such instrument.
11.3. DIRECTORS’ INSPECTION RIGHTS

Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical property of the Corporation. Any inspection under the provisions of this Article may be made in person or by an agent or attorney. The right to inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts.

11.4. MEMBERS’ INSPECTION RIGHTS

11.4.1. Unless the Corporation provides a reasonable alternative as provided below, any member may do either or both of the following for a purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a member:

11.4.1.1. Inspect and copy the records containing members' names, addresses, and voting rights during usual business hours on five days' prior written demand on the Corporation, which must state the purpose for which the inspection rights are requested; and 11.4.1.2. Obtain from the Secretary, on written demand and tender of a reasonable charge, a list of names, addresses, and voting rights of members who are entitled to vote for directors as of the most recent record date for which that list has been compiled, or as of the date, after the date of demand, specified by the member. The demand shall state the purpose for which the list is requested. The Secretary shall make this list available to the member on or before the later of 10 days after the demand is received or the date specified in the demand as the date as of which the list is to be compiled.

11.4.2. The Corporation may, within 10 business days after receiving a demand under this Section, make a written offer of an alternative method if reasonable and timely achievement of the proper purpose specified in the demand without providing access to or a copy of the membership list. Any rejection of this offer must be in writing and must state the reasons the proposed alternative does not meet the proper purpose of the demand.

11.4.3. If the Corporation reasonably believes that the information will be used for a purpose other than one reasonably related to a person's interest as a member, or if it provides a reasonable alternative under this Section, it may deny the member access to the membership list.

11.4.4. Any inspection and copying under this Section may be made in person or by the member's agent or attorney. The right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts. This right of inspection extends to the records of any subsidiary of the Corporation.

11.5. ANNUAL REPORT

11.5.1. The Board shall cause an annual report to be furnished not later than 120 days after the close of the Corporation’s fiscal year to all directors and members of the Corporation, which report shall contain the following information in appropriate detail:

11.5.1.1. The assets and liabilities, including the trust funds, of the Corporation as of the end of the fiscal year;

11.5.1.2. The principal changes in assets and liabilities, including trust funds, during the fiscal year;
11.5.1.3. The revenue or receipts of the Corporation, both unrestricted and restricted to particular purposes, for the fiscal year;

11.5.1.4. The expenses or disbursements of the Corporation, for both general and restricted purposes, during the fiscal year; and 11.5.1.5. A statement of the place where the names and addresses of current members are located.

11.5.2. The annual report shall be accompanied by any report thereon of independent accountants, or, if there is no such report, the certificate of an authorized officer of the Corporation that such statements were prepared without an audit from the books and records of the Corporation.

11.5.3. This requirement of an annual report shall not apply if the Corporation receives less than $25,000 in gross receipts during the fiscal year, provided, however, that the information specified above for inclusion in an annual report must be furnished annually to all directors.

11.5.4. This Corporation shall annually notify each member of the member's right to receive a copy of the financial report under this Section. Except as provided in the next paragraph of these bylaws, on written request by a member, the Board shall promptly cause the most recent annual report to be sent to the requesting member.

11.6. ANNUAL STATEMENT OF CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS AND INDEMNIFICATIONS

As part of the annual report to all directors and members, or as a separate document if no annual report is issued, the Corporation shall, within 120 days after the end of the Corporation’s fiscal year, annually prepare and furnish to each director a statement of any transactions or indemnifications of the following kind:

11.6.1. Any transaction (i) to which the Corporation, or its parent or subsidiary, was a party, (ii) in which an “interested person” had a direct or indirect material financial interest, and (iii) which involved more than $50,000 or was one of several transactions with the same interested person involving, in the aggregate, more than $50,000. For these purposes, an “interested person” is either:

   11.6.1.1. Any director or officer of the Corporation, its parent, or subsidiary (but mere common directorship shall not be considered such an interest); or 11.6.1.2. Any holder of more than 10 percent of the voting power of the Corporation, its parent, or its subsidiaries.

The statement shall include a brief description of the transaction, the names of interested persons involved, their relationship to the Corporation, the nature of their interest in the transaction and, if practicable, the amount of that interest, provided that if the transaction was with a partnership in which the interested person is a partner, only the interest of the partnership need be stated.

11.6.2. Any indemnification or advances aggregating more than $10,000 paid during the fiscal year to any officer or director of the Corporation pursuant to section 5238 of the Nonprofit Law.
ARTICLE 12
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

12.1. FISCAL YEAR OF THE CORPORATION

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall begin on the first day of January in each calendar year and end on the last day of the succeeding December.

12.2. AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

12.2.1. Subject to any provision of law applicable to the amendment of bylaws of a California Nonprofit Corporation, these bylaws, or any of them, may be altered, amended or repealed, and new bylaws adopted by approval of:

12.2.1.1. A majority of directors then currently in office; or 12.2.1.2. A majority of the members represented and voting.

12.2.2. Subject to the members' rights under these bylaws and the limitations set forth below, the Board may adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws unless doing so would materially and adversely affect the members', or a class or classes of members' rights, as to voting, dissolution, redemption or transfer.
The Board may not extend a director's term beyond that for which the director was elected.

12.2.3. Once members have been admitted to the Corporation, the Board may not, without the members' approval, specify or change any bylaw that would:

12.2.3.1. Fix or change the minimum or maximum number of directors;
12.2.3.2. Fix or change the authorized number of directors; or 12.2.3.3. Change from a fixed number of directors to a variable number of directors or vice versa.

12.2.4. Without the approval of the members, the Board may not adopt, amend or repeal any bylaw that would:

12.2.4.1. Allow any director to hold office by designation or selection rather than by election of the members;
12.2.4.2. Extend or increase a director's term of office;
12.2.4.3. Increase the quorum for members' meetings;
12.2.4.4. Repeal, restrict, create, expand, or otherwise change proxy rights; or 12.2.4.5. Authorize cumulative voting.

12.2.5. New bylaws may be adopted or these bylaws may be amended or repealed by approval of the members, provided, however, that any such adoption, amendment, or repeal also requires approval by the members of a class if that action would:

12.2.5.1. Materially and adversely affect the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer in a manner different than the action affecting another class; 12.2.5.2. Materially and adversely affect that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer by changing the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of another class;
12.2.5.3. Increase or decrease the number of memberships authorized for that class;
12.2.5.4. Increase the number of memberships authorized for another class;
12.2.5.5. Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the memberships of that class; or 12.2.5.6. Authorize a new class of memberships.

12.2.6. If any provision of these bylaws requires the vote of a larger proportion of the Board than is otherwise required by law, that provision may not be altered, amended or repealed except by that greater vote.

12.3. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

12.3.1. Any amendment of the Articles of Incorporation may be adopted by approval of a majority of the members represented and voting.

12.3.2. Notwithstanding Subsection 12.3.1, above, this Corporation shall not amend its Articles of Incorporation to add or to alter any statement which appears in the original Articles of Incorporation regarding the Corporation's initial street address or mailing address, the names and addresses of the first directors of the Corporation, or the name and address of its initial agent, except to correct an error in such statement or to delete the information after the Corporation has filed the Statement required by section 8210 of the Nonprofit Law.

12.4. CONSTRUCTION AND DEFINITIONS

Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions in the Nonprofit Law shall govern the construction of these bylaws. Without limiting the generality of the above, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, the term "person" includes both the Corporation and a natural person, and vice versa. All references to statutes, regulations and laws shall include any future statutes, regulations and laws that replace those referenced.
